

urrescene

What's On

A free ghazal night

THE Indian Club is hosting a free Chandni Raat Ghazal and Geet programme next weekend.

The musical evening will be headlined by Indian singer Sunil Nedungadi, whose real name is Sunil Kumar.

It will be held at 8pm on August 13 at the club's Sanskar Auditorium, Manama.

Mr Nedungadi is expected to perform ghazals, devotional songs and other songs composed by popular musicians.

The singer has performed extensively throughout the GCC, India, Indonesia, Singapore and Europe, and has won several musical awards as a school and college student.

The ghazal maestro has performed for TV shows on a number of networks including Asianet, MTV, Jeevan, Kairali and Surya and has released a number of critically acclaimed albums.

Highlights of his career include his exclusive performance for former Pakistan president Pervez Musharraf at Jakarta, Indonesia, as well as his performance at last year's Indo-Arab Fest in Abu Dhabi.

Entry is free.

Contact entertainment secretary Radhakrishnan Theruvath on 36647253 for more information.

■ Mr Nedungadi performs at a past concert in Abu Dhabi

Sounds of Ibiza in

